

The Theory of Positive Disintegration by Kazimierz Dabrowski

Level 5: Secondary Integration

Level 4: Organized Multi-Level Disintegration

Level 3: Spontaneous Multi-Level Disintegration

Level 2: Uni-level Disintegration

Level 1: Primary Integration

Intimate Partner Violence Intervention Referral Assessment Matrix

	Victim with complex needs	Healthy victim
Perpetrator with complex Issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ~mutually abusive ~treatment contra-indicated ~ children at high risk of exposure and direct abuse: in need of protective services ~complex case 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ~ FV awareness, emotional support, safety planning and supports for victim and children ~ treatment for perpetrator may be contra-indicated ~ Protection order may be needed ~ Safe visitation services may be needed
Perpetrator Treatable	Mandatory treatment for the offender, Specialized treatment for victim <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ~ children at high risk of exposure and direct abuse: in need of protective services ~ Couples counseling and family therapy based on individual therapy success Issue: as the offender becomes healthier victim may undermine change 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ~FV awareness, emotional support, safety planning, and supports for victim & children ~ Mandatory treatment for perpetrator ~ Couples counseling and family therapy based on individual therapy success

Isolated or situational abuse:

no established pattern of abusive behavior
Teaching and support approach, Crisis Intervention
Life skills, Anger management
Stress management
Conflict resolution
Abuse awareness
Communications